The trial of Frederick Heggi, charged with elsoning an old German named Frederick J. Sieg-ried, was continued yesterday in the Court of General Sessions, Recorder Hackett presiding.

BEGGI'S STATEMENT.

Frederick Heggi, the accused, was recalled, and said that he never told Jacob Ruch that Slegfried was sead and burled in Newark. He denied the statement of the younger Mrs. Siegfried that he told her et to disturb the deceased and pushed her out of

Hermann Endemann was recalled by the District storney, and repeated the statement that he used the microscope in his experiments upon the por-tion of the remains of the deceased which was

Assistant District Attorney Stewart asked to ave the witness exhibit a practical test with the alcrescope upon the results of the chemical analy-

Counsel for the prisoner objected on the ground that this was not rebutting proof.

The Court intimated that the proof of the presence of arsenic was sufficiently established if the pary believed the winess, and that it was unnecessary to examine him further on that point.

Simmons Clark, the Secretary of the Board of Bealth, was called, and testified that he knew Dr. Suido Furman, the chemical witness for the decince; that Furman was connected with the Board of Health about a year and a half, and that during the latter part of his service there his reputation was bad.

consect that Forman was connected with the Board of Health about a year and a half, and that during the latter part of his service there his reputation was had.

This closed the case on both sides, and Mr. Porter proceeded to address the jury on behalf of the accused, quoting the celebrated recent trials for alleged murder by poisoning of Fowler, Wharton and Schoeppe, and arguing that the evidence adduced against Heggi was so slight, coupled with his good against Heggi was so slight, coupled with his good alaracter, as to demand his prompt acquittal.

Assistant District Attorney Stewart summed up for the prosecution, contending that the testimony satabilished the fact that arsenical poison was administered to the deceased, and that the prisoner had the motive to give if to him.

RECORDER HACKETT'S CHARGE.

Recorder Hackett delivered a brief but able and liear charge, recting the salient points of the testimony. His Honor said the jury should gravely ronsider all the testimony of the witnesses with reference to the alleged existence of pelson in the veinains of the deceased, and also as to the diverse gonclusions testified to by the respective witnesses. The testimony having established to the minds of the jury beyond a reasonable doubt that the deseased's death was directly attributable to arsenical poison taken into his system daring life, the NEXT QUESTION WAS;

was such poison, in quantities sufficient to destroy life, administered by the prisoner to the deceased with the premeditated design to take his life? Testimony was given going to show that within a short thine previous to the death of the deceased some suid, described as of a brownish color, was administered by the prisoner to the deceased with the prisoner of the deceased with the prisoner of the deceased of the prisoner of the deceased of the case. It was for the jury to say whether the motive claimed by the prosecution to have been sufficient to induce the prisoner to commit the crime of murder—viz., the fact that the deceased with a settlement be

THE QUINN BOMICIDE, BROCKLYN.

An inquest was held yesterday over the body of Patrick Quinn, who was found lying dead, with a scep gash in the tack of his head, on the promises the rear of a row of tenement houses on Willoughby street, Brocklyn. The jury found a ver-sict to the effect that the deceased came to his death from injuries received by falling while under the influence of alcohol. The verdict also exen-erates from all complicity in the affair William Schnider, who was thereupon discharged from sustody.
